Our History

Ultrasound Solutions Corp is an independent service and equipment sales company, owned and operated by professionals with over 30 years of experience in the ultrasound industry.

Our dispatch center and customer support services are located in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, with additional parts distribution centers and warehouses in Farmingdale, NY and Auburn, Ohio.

The company continues to grow, adding new coverage areas and high quality, manufacturer-trained ultrasound repair technicians to our group.

Ultrasound Solutions Corp's customized service programs have been developed in answer to requests by healthcare customers for a more responsive service alternative to the high-priced manufacturer service organizations. Contact Ultrasound Solutions Corp to receive a list of references from across the eastern United States.
